1/18/2025

---

Reagan Long

Great when it's dry

I tried this brush on both wet sand and dry. I felt with the wet sand it definitely took longer for the sand to come off. On items with dry sand everything just fell off right away. I felt like that was an important distinction that I wanted to share.

12/31/2024

Paul B

Not so impressed

Not great for the spots that mattered. I had a few specific items that I wanted cleaned up but I felt like I still needed to do a towel pass to get everything off and it felt like it just created more work by using a brush. The outer bag is good but it's also lightweight so it can't really clean up anything heavy duty you would still need to have a cleaning cloth.

12/30/2024

---

Harry Carter

Worth it for the car alone

No one gets in my car after a beach trip anymore without using these brushes. I'm so happy I got this kit and I would recommend this to anyone who cares about the interior of their car and keeping it sand free.

I like this brush kit. It does everything I need it to do which is keep the sand away!

11/29/2024

Helpful, but took extra passes

Did better than a towel, but not flawless. I found sand to still be remaining on skin and on some of our gear. Basically I felt like I had to brush off the sand and then wipe it off as well. I was hoping not to have to do a two step process.

Works at lakes too

I like this for our family lake trip . We have a lot of gear that we take out there and the clean works well for us.

Great size for a tote

I like this brush kit and it definitely gets the job done. Sand just falls away like the product has advertised. The size is good for a tote but if you have a smaller bag it's not so great.

Beach wedding

This was the perfect gift for my beach wedding guests. People used their brush throughout the weekend and then they had it to take home with them for their own beach trip. I got so many compliments on what a wonderful and unique gift they received.

Great purchase!

We are so happy we bought this brush kit because we can't stand sand at the end of a beach day. We did think it was a bit expensive for what it is.

Easy to use and good quality

These brushes work just fine. If you want to be sand free then this is the way to go. The wood and the bristles are very nice and also the bag has good construction and material.

Very useful

We went to the beach and finally got to try this out over the weekend. We had kids with us and by the time we were done there was loads of sand to clean up from all the gear. The bristles were soft and comfortable and no one had any problems with anything.

I ordered a second set

This worked so well that I wanted to keep a permanent one in my car and another one in the tote bag for the family. It has cut on clean up time tremendously.

Worked

Helped with sandy hands and legs. Some of the gear needed more work to get the sand off.

Works best on dry sand

It works, but I find it is better on dry sand.

I keep it by the door

Kid cleanup took seconds. after beach soccer by brushing gritty kids' hands before anyone stepped inside, we did a quick brush-of on dry sand it's noticeably faster.
